FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 9, 2010

Fort Walton Beach, FL (February 9, 2010) – San Gelato Café at the beach is set to reopen for Spring Break on February 27th at the Boardwalk on Okaloosa Island. In addition to offering authentic, artisan Italian Gelato and Sorbet, the café will feature a completely redesigned interior and brand new menu with several new exciting items such as San Gelato’s signature frozen coffee creations and natural fruit smoothies.

“We are really excited about re-opening this location at the boardwalk. We had our best year in 2009 and despite the economy, we expect big things in 2010.” stated Simona Faroni, owner of San Gelato Café. “We plan to introduce several new signature smoothies, shakes and coffee beverages. We spent a considerable amount of time experimenting and creating new menu items in-house and we are really pleased with the results.” For one day only, San Gelato Café is celebrating its reopening by offering customers who purchase one signature smoothie, shake or frozen coffee beverage, a second one for free.

In anticipation of the store opening, San Gelato Café is looking to fill several seasonal, part-time positions at both the boardwalk location as well as its Silver Sands Factory Store location in Destin. Please email your resumes to Toni@gsgelato.com.

San Gelato Café is an upscale, Italian gelateria & café that could be found on the corner of any typical neighborhood in Italy. The Café specializes in authentic, artisan gelatos and sorbets that are created at a state of the art facility in Fort Walton Beach, FL. Additionally, each San Gelato Café serves a selection of exquisite Italian cuisine featuring a variety of fresh paninis, salads, pizzas and wraps as well as a wide selection of specialty coffee and espresso beverages. San Gelato Café has two locations at Silver Sands Factory Stores in Destin, FL and one at the Boardwalk on Okaloosa Island, FL. Recently the parent company, G.S. Gelato & Desserts, has offered franchise opportunities to select individuals. In December of 2009, a new San Gelato Café opened at SoDa Row in South Jordan, UT.
