Summertime!

Learn Italiano...

“Tempo D’Estate” or “Estatissima”

Featured Flavor:

Soleada

flavor is perfect for summer. A vibrant and refreshing combination of mango, passion fruit and papaya. You can't get more tropical than that! And talk about versatile - besides enjoying it in a dish or on a cone, you can make delicious tropical beverages perfect for outdoor get togethers. Just take a couple scoops of this sorbet, your favorite rum and some ice...and wahla! You'll have the most memorable pool party this summer!

In The Glass

For an easy summer sipper, fill glasses halfway with pomegranate, cherry, or raspberry sparkling soda or even a sparkling wine. Add a scoop of lemon sorbet and top with a lemon slice or two.

Giugno

June in Italy...

Festival of the Republic is like Italy's Independence Day. June 2nd marks the day in 1946 when Italy voted to abolish the monarchy and become a republic.

The Historic Regatta of Saint Ranieri is June 17th, in Pisa. Four boats, one from each of Pisa's districts, row against the Arno River's current. When the winning boat arrives at the finish line, one man climbs up a 25-foot rope to reach the victory flag.

San Giovanni Feast Day is celebrated in Florence the Sunday following June 24 with a medieval tournament, music, drinking, and feasting. In the evening on the Arno River, there is a palio of rowboats carrying lit candles followed by fireworks.

Festival dei Due Mondi, Festival of two Worlds, is one of Italy's most famous performing arts festivals. It features concerts, operas, ballets, films, and art from late June thru July and takes place in Spoleto which is located in the central Umbria region.
